

JOB DESCRIPTION

POSITION: SCHOOL SOCIAL WORKER

School Profile

Midlands Middle College provides a bridge to success for students who will change tomorrow.

Midlands Middle College (MMC) is a South Carolina Public Charter School helping 11th and 12th grade students achieve successful work and educational futures. Located on the Airport Campus of Midlands Technical College, MMC seamlessly integrates high school, technical college and work-based learning into one rigorous and relevant academic program. Since 2006, MMC has offered a fresh academic start to hundreds of high school students located in the Midlands of South Carolina.

Position Summary

Work collaboratively with school personnel, community agencies, students and their families to alleviate any issues affecting the students' academic or social development. Provide direct social casework and counseling services to individual students. Develop attendance intervention plans as needed. Assist in locating resources to meet the environmental needs of students and their families; make appropriate referrals. Report evidence of child abuse or neglect to the Department of Social Services. Update and inform school of any changes in the child abuse and neglect law. Keep abreast of developments and innovations in the profession; provide training to instructional staff.

This is a part-time, temporary position funded by a federal grant. Continuance of the position beyond the 2021-2022 school year is dependent upon the source of funding. The anticipated workload is 12 hours per week.

Qualifications

Candidates must hold South Carolina LMSW certification.

Preferred candidates will have a strong understanding of current and emerging best practices in the methods, procedures and policies of Student Support Services.

Candidates must possess a desire to work with a diverse population of learners and meet their individual needs in a caring, collaborative, and flexible environment.

How to Apply

Candidates may submit a resume, cover letter, and references to info@midlandsmiddlecollege.com.
